

Amber Premium and CMGE Join Forces to Drive RWA Innovation for the Iconic IP The Legend of Sword and Fairy

SINGAPORE, Sept. 29, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- Amber International Holding Limited (Nasdaq: AMBR), a leading provider of institutional digital asset financial services and solutions operating under the brand name "Amber Premium", today announced a strategic partnership with CMGE Technology Group Limited (HKEX: 0302.HK), a prominent global IP-based gaming operator. The collaboration leverages the strengths of both parties in the gaming and Web3 industry, with Amber Premium focusing on providing technology infrastructure, Web3 advisory, and wallet security solutions to support CMGE's initiatives. At the heart of this partnership between Amber Premium and CMGE is accelerating the RWA plan of the iconic and beloved gaming franchise, The Legend of Sword and Fairy, which has captured the hearts of fans for over 30 years, subject to applicable regulatory approvals.

As part of the partnership, Amber Premium will offer CMGE and its subsidiaries a suite of customized solutions, including foundational infrastructure, Web3 advisory, and technical support. This encompasses wallet security, blockchain integration, and secure digitalization tools, enabling CMGE to explore new applications of its IP assets in the Web3 ecosystem, in compliance with relevant regulatory requirements.

What's more, as long-term strategic partners, CMGE and Amber Premium intend to also mutually build on CMGE's expertise in IP operations and Amber Premium's advanced technological capabilities, extensive industry recognition, and proven track record of serving over 4,900 global institutional and high-net-worth (HNW) investors. Both parties will continue to explore collaborative opportunities in the field of Web3 by capitalizing on their respective core advantages, achieving synergistic growth, and creating shared value.

Vicky Wang, President of Amber Premium, stated, "Amber Premium is honored to partner with CMGE. With our expertise in wallet security, infrastructure design, and Web3 advisory, we are committed to providing institutional-grade security for CMGE's Web3 initiatives and enhancing user trust and asset safety. We are also fully confident that our technology-driven approach will help CMGE unlock new potential for its IP assets and open up exciting new possibilities. "

CMGE's Chairman and CEO, Xiao Jian, added, "We are pleased to partner with Amber Premium to accelerate our Web3 business development. We believe that Amber Premium's institutional services and technical capabilities will establish a secure and compliant foundation for our Web3 operations, including The Legend of Sword and Fairy IP RWA plan, the launch of Web3 payment aggregation tools, and a decentralized esports platform. We look forward to seeing what the future holds and to mutually creating value."

CMGE recently unveiled its Web3 business roadmap, which includes the RWA tokenization of The Legend of Sword and Fairy IP, a Web3 payment aggregation tool supporting fiat currencies, mainstream cryptocurrencies, and compliant stablecoins, as well as the launch of a decentralized Web3 esports platform, "KKFun Esports," slated for late 2025 to early 2026. This strategic partnership with Amber Premium will provide critical support for CMGE's Web3 initiatives and further accelerate its business growth and expansion in the Web3 space.
